Third Annual Special Train Carries 100 Chautauquans

Trip From Chicago to Jacksonville, Fla., a Delightful One.

Thorntown, Ind., Turns Out En Masse to Greet Party During Twenty Minute Stop—Stirring Band Music and Enthusiasm Everywhere.

ACCOMPANIED by stirring band music and amid enthusiastic cheering, the third annual Redpath Chautauqua special train, from Chicago to the Southland, left the Illinois Central station at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of April 15 on a 1,190 mile trip via the Big Four, Queen and Crescent and the Southern railways. The train comprised five Pullman cars and carried 100 loyal Chautauquans. At almost the same hour the first Redpath Chautauqua program opened in Jacksonville, those who were to appear on the first two days having gone on before.

Aside from Signor Francesco Pallarja and his band, the party included the following: Charles Rann Kennedy, the author of "The Servant in the House"; Ex-Governor and present Congressman Ashton C. Shallenberger of Nebraska; W. E. Mack, vice president of the Central Trust company of Illinois, and wife; J. W. Van Buskirk, president of the Bank of Commerce and Savings, Chicago, and wife; Harry P. Harrison, factory whistles the Chautauqua party, including the band, was hurriedly carried to the center of the city, where a thousand people had gathered. Dr. Calhoun extended hearty words of welcome and Dr. W. A. College responded on behalf of the Chautauqua management. The band played two selections amid the most rousing enthusiasm.

A stop was made at Indianapolis for supper, and then the train hurried on to Cincinnati, after which it was announced that the next stop would be Knoxville, Tenn., for breakfast. An hour later found seventy people in one Pullman enjoying a stunt feat under the unparalleled leadership of Ralph Bingham as master of ceremonies.

Forty-five minutes for breakfast at Knoxville and the entire party was again on its way, this time to beautiful Asheville, N. C. The stay here, lasting six hours, was one of the particularly pleasant experiences of the entire journey. About twenty of the party visited Grove Park Inn, 2,500

THE SPECIAL TRAIN AT ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Scarcely had the train left Chicago when the inimitable Ralph Bingham, founder of the L. L. A. and originator of Chautauqua Joy Night, busied himself on a program for the tour. Together with Lincoln Dickey, D. F. Thomas and Glenn Henry Thomas, he formed a quartet which rendered humorous original selections at intervals all the way to Jacksonville. Every one started off with a spirit of good humor and enthusiasm.

At 9 p. m. the train reached Thorntown, Ind., where a Redpath Chautauqua will be held late in August. Twenty-five autos were at the depot, and amid the din of locomotive and feet above sea level, one of the most beautiful hotels in America. While the Chautauquans were at luncheon F. L. Seeley, the proprietor, entered the dining room and soon recognized Ralph Bingham and Mr. Harrison. Ascertaining that the entire party was connected with the Chautauqua movement, Mr. Seeley notified Mr. Harrison that they were his guests as long as they could stay. Mr. Seeley is a director of the Wisconsin (Ind.) Assembly and a great Chautauqua enthusiast. He believes that if there is one thing that the South needs more than another it is Chautauqua.

After a ride through the mountains the party returned to this hotel and enjoyed Mr. Seeley's hospitality again at the dinner hour, and was shown over the entire plant.

Wallace Bruce Ambury and Mrs. Ambury remained at the hotel over Sunday at the earnest request of Mr. Seeley, and on Sunday night Mr. Am-
